

Barrio Bellas Artes Guide

Experience the city as residents do.

- The Not Tourist Guide -

Explore like a local, rest in Nest

Where to Eat.

New Horizon

Best Indian Food In town.
Don't be confused by their appearance

Merced 565
Distance 230 m

El Txoko Alaves

Spanish food (Vasca)
Go for some pinchos and tortilla española

Mosqueto 485
Distance 50 m

Walk a little further.

Confitería Torres

The real Fuente de Soda Chilena. 120 years of history

Av. Libertador Bernardo O'Higgins 1570

Distance 2,1 Km

Ciro's Bar Restaurante

Chilean Food served with love

Bandera 220

Distance 1,1 km

Pizzería La Argentina

In Plaza de Armas, please taste a slice

Plaza de Armas 429

Distance 600 m

Neighborhood Cafes | around the corner

---

R3 Coffee

Miraflores 537
Distance 150 m

Café Triciclo

Santo Domingo 589
Distance 150 m

Espresso Hood Café

Ayacucho 473
Distance 220 m

Neighborhood Cafes I walk a little further.

---

Area Cafe

Miraflores 419
Distance 850 m

Blue Jar

Profesora Amanda Labarca 102
Distance 1,6 km

Maña Cafe

Bombero Salas 1361
Distance 1,6 km

Santiago centro HIGHLIGHTS

the perfect match between historical sites and a good coffee

1. Work Café Santander | Bandera

Banco Santander historic head office in Chile has been transformed into the world's largest Santander Work Cafe.

It is a historic building that combines work spaces, cafeteria, meeting rooms, and is still a bank branch.

Agustinas 920
Distance 950 m

Free entrance

2. Biblioteca Nacional | Cafe Justicia

One of Santiago's most underrated tourist attractions is the elegant national library. Take a walk through it at your own pace.

Here you will find Cafe Justicia where you can enjoy a delicious coffee in a wonderful atmosphere.

Av. Libertador Bernardo
O'Higgins 651
Distance 850 m

Free entrance

3. Palacio Pereira | La Huerfana Cafe

The Pereira Palace was built in 1872. In 2019 its restoration was completed and it was opened to the public where citizens can appreciate its historical and architectural value.

Enjoy a coffee at La Huerfana Cafeteria.

Huerfanos 515
Distance 1,6 km

Free entrance

Explore like a local, rest in Nest

